

- Admin to wear a mask during their full shift
- Patients, once entered into the clinic must disinfect hands (Biotext spray will be at Admin desk)
- Patient to sit 6 feet away from Admin
- Only one patient in waiting room at a time, if another patient should enter early, they will be escorted to the education room until the prior patient has left the waiting area.
- Nurses will wear full PPE as per usual while performing care
- InfraRed thermometer will be on hand to take temp/ Nurse to chart results
- Each seat in waiting area will be wiped down after each patient leaves area, Biotext can be sprayed into the air (should it be justified) a patient cough and or sneezes
- Normal disinfection between patients remain per health Canada